Heard Ms. Prerana Janvekar, learned Advocate holding for Smt. Ranjana Todankar, learned Advocate for the Applicant and Smt. Archana B.K., learned Presenting Officer for the Respondents. 2. This O.A. is filed to treat temporary service from 02.03.2001 till appointment on compassionate ground as regular Government services for the purpose of pension and other service benefits. 3. During the course of hearing it is transpired that the Applicant's husband was was sweeper (Class 'IV' employee) on the establishment of Respondent No.4 – The Dean, Sasoon General Hospital, Agarkar Nagar, Pune – 411 001. However, he died in harness on 21.09.2000. The Applicant contend that on her application, Respondent No.4 issued temporary posting orders from time to time from 02.03.2001 with technical break and later the Collector by order dated 31.12.2003 issued order of appointment on compassionate ground on the establishment of Respondent No.3 – The Collector, Pune. 4. Thus, it appears that the Applicant had already made application for appointment on compassionate ground but instead of appointing her on compassionate ground she was given temporary appointment from time to time. As such, if application was made of compassionate ground and there was vacancy, in that event instead of issuing temporary appointment order there should have been regular posting order. It is therefore necessary to know when the name of the [P.T.O.]

5. Learned Advocate for the Applicant stated that she do not have record of application made for appointment on compassionate ground.

6. However, it must be with Respondent No.3 – The Collector, Pune since it is the Collector, Pune who appointed the Applicant on compassionate ground as seen from order dated 31.12.2003.

7. Learned P.O. is therefore directed to take instructions from the Collector, Pune about details of waiting list and the date of application made by the Applicant for appointment on compassionate ground.
