Advocate for the applicants states that there is urgency in this matter as yesterday final result of the post of Social Services Superintendent, Medical is declared by respondent no.2 and therefore the matter be heard for interim relief. He states that that there are 83 posts and all the posts will be filled up in the next week. In order to safeguard the interest of the applicants we have already passed interim order dated 16.4.2024 directing that, if appointments are made, it will be subject to final decision in OA. We make it clear that deciding the interim relief is as good as deciding the matter finally. 3. Ld. Advocate for the applicants submits that appointment to these posts be differed by next week. At this stage we are not inclined to grant any relief prohibiting the respondents from issuing the appointment orders. However, as we have already passed the interim order on 16.4.2024 that, if appointments are made, it will be subject to final decision in OA. We also would like to mention that we are taking the matters which are related to recruitment or appointment as they are very urgent and also dealing with the matters of 2017, 2018 for final hearing. This OA is filed on 12.2.2024 and interim relief is granted and pleadings are complete. We will hear this matter after two weeks. 4.
