CORAM : Shri Justice A.H. Joshi, Chairman

DATE : 7th July, 2017

ORDER

1. Heard Shri C.T. Chandratre, learned Advocate holding for Shri A.D. Aghav, learned Advocate for the Applicant in OA No.271/17, Smt. Dipti Nikhade, learned Advocate holding for Shri D.V. Sutar, learned Advocate for the Applicant in OA No.534/17 and Shri K.B. Bhise, learned Presenting Officer for the Respondents.

2. The case was heard for some time day before yesterday.
3. Shri B.M. Andhale, Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Pune was present.
4. The crux of the matter is that the examination conducted by the respondents for selection is done by use of an answer book which contains marking of the round left for answering by blackening the rounds. Shri B.M. Andhale, who is present, states that the procedure is known as Optical Mark Recognition (OMR) system.
5. During the hearing Shri B.M. Andhale was called to state as to whether steps and procedure involved in OMR system is available on record. Shri Andhale informed that entire procedure has been incorporated in the minutes of the meeting and the file can be made available.
6. Hearing was adjourned with an oral direction to Shri Andhale to secure entire record from which it can be understood as to what is the procedure adopted while undertaking the process of OMR system. Today Shri Andhale has arrived with copies of certain documents and produced the same for perusal. Perusal of the documents reveals that these documents relate to assignment of job of conducting the examination in which the answering books are to be solved by use of answer book which is capable of optical recognition and assessment through OMR. The documents brought by Shri Andhale do not reveal even one line as regards the procedure to be followed while conducting the assessment by use of OMR.
7. It was necessary for the respondents to read the OA, understand it and in the light of the imputation required to be answered, prepare themselves to answer the queries of the Tribunal. It is seen that the office of respondent no.1 and 2 are not serious in contesting present OA, though the respondents were expected to be utmost careful and serious while defending the present OA. It appears that respondents have not understood the challenge.

8. The case cannot be allowed to proceed in this manner. It is, therefore, necessary to direct the Commissioner of Labour and Additional Commissioner of Labour to look into the matter personally.
9. Ld. PO is directed to furnish the names of Commissioner and Additional Commissioner of Labour.
10. Ld. PO has furnished the names as Shri Y.E. Kerure, Commissioner of Labour, Mumbai and Shri A.R. Lakaswar, Additional Commissioner of Labour, Pune.
11. These two officers are directed as follows:
  - (a) To call for papers of the OA and entire set of papers pertaining to the examination.
  - (b) Read those themselves and prepare affidavit answering each and every point, paragraph and ground in the OA.
12. These officers are directed to file own affidavit and include the following information:
  - (a) The date when the notice of OA was received.
  - (b) The date when he has come to know about of filing of OA.
  - (c) The date when he has read the OA.

(d) What orders he has given as to prepare defence of OA.

13. Affidavits be filed on or before 14.7.2017.

14. S.O. 14.7.2017. Steno copy and hamdast is allowed. Ld. PO is directed to communicate this order to the respondents.

Smt. Dr.H.B. Hankare ... Applicant
V/s.
The State of Mah. & ors. ... Respondents

The Applicant by this Misc. Application seeks condonation in filing the OA which in turn is for grant of time bound promotion.

I have perused the record and proceedings and heard Ms S.P. Manchekar, the learned Advocate for the Applicant and Shri A.J. Chougule, the learned P.O. for the Respondents.

It appears to me that on two grounds there could as well be no delay. Perusal of the last Exhibit in the OA dated 9/15.11.2016 along with other part of the record would show that the final word about the claim of the Applicant was not heard and, therefore, on the basic principle of cause of action in the light of running of time for the Limitation Act, time did not begin to run. Further in accordance with the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the Union of India V/s. Tarsem Singh (2008) 8 SC 648, this will be an instance of continuing cause of action and, therefore, there is no delay but granting all attitude to the Respondents even if it was held that there was delay the same will have to be condoned in accordance with the basic principles governing such applications. This will be the position and there can be no escape despite strong objection reflected in Affidavit-in-Reply filed by the Respondent and strong objection raised by the learned P.O. Shri Chougule.

It is held that there is no delay, however even if the delay was there, it is condoned. The office and the Applicant are directed to process the OA so as to be placed before an appropriate bench for disposal according to law.

M.A. is allowed in these terms with no order as to costs.
