M.A.185 & 186/2017 in O.As.364 &
365/2017

Mr. S.G. Warkhede & Anr. ... Applicants
Vs.
The State of Mah. & ors. ... Respondents

These two Applications for condonation of delay in bringing the OAs in a disciplinary proceedings related matter are being disposed of by this common order.

I have perused the records and proceedings and heard Mr. C.T. Chandratre, the learned Advocate for the Applicants and Mrs. K.S. Gaikwad, the learned Presenting Officer for the Respondents.

The tabulated form in Para 2 shows that the orders of punishment came to be made on 20.3.2012. An appeal thereagainst was preferred on 3.5.2012 which was dismissed on 24.12.2012 and whereagainst a Revision was filed which came to be rejected on 25.9.2013. A Review Application came to be dismissed on 18.1.2014. In the meanwhile, a co-delinquent moved Aurangabad Bench of this Tribunal by way of OA 542/2014 where he ultimately got success. On 24.12.2016, the Applicant moved to the concerned authority with a request to decide his appeal in the light of the above referred OA. Mr. Chandratre told me that, it apparently appears that there was no delay in the above factual matrix. However, even if the delay was there, it would be in the form of awaiting for the decisions of the proceedings which are adopted. Smt. Gaikwad, the learned PO while strongly objecting to the grant of these MAs told me that the Applicants were clearly informed that the second appeal against the appellate order did not lie, and therefore, their case that they waited and waited does not inspire confidence. Now, no doubt the submission of the learned PO is thought provoking but then proceedings in the nature of revision and review have got a different hue when compared with appeal, and therefore, if the Applicants who were Jail

Tribunal's orders

Guards kept waiting for the outcome of their proceedings, I do not think, they could be visited with the serious consequences of having to go unheard. After-all, there cannot be any delay in absence of some lack of diligence. The issue is as to whether the conduct was so contumacious as to deprive the concerned litigant an opportunity of being heard by the judicial forum. No doubt, some inconvenience is bound to be caused to the adversary, but if the said inconvenience is capable of being set at naught by the award of cost, then the scale would be evenly balanced and the applications can be allowed.

Subject to the cost condition precedent of Rs.2000/- each of these matters (Rs.4000/- in all) payable within four weeks from today by way of deposit in the office of this Tribunal, the delay stands hereby condoned and the OA shall be heard on merit. The Applicant and the Office of this Tribunal are directed to process the matters further and get them placed before the appropriate Bench for disposal according to law. The MAs are allowed with this with no further orders.

The State of Mah. & ors. ... Respondents

These two Applications for condonation of delay in bringing the OAs in a disciplinary proceedings related matter are being disposed of by this common order.

I have perused the records and proceedings and heard Mr. C.T. Chandratre, the learned Advocate for the Applicants and Mrs. K.S. Gaikwad, the learned Presenting Officer for the Respondents.

The tabulated form in Para 2 shows that the orders of punishment came to be made on 20.3.2012. An appeal thereagainst was preferred on 3.5.2012 which was dismissed on 24.12.2012 and whereagainst a Revision was filed which came to be rejected on 25.9.2013. A Review Application came to be dismissed on 18.1.2014. In the meanwhile, a co-delinquent moved Aurangabad Bench of this Tribunal by way of OA 542/2014 where he ultimately got success. On 24.12.2016, the Applicant moved to the concerned authority with a request to decide his appeal in the light of the above referred OA. Mr. Chandratre told me that, it apparently appears that there was no delay in the above factual matrix. However, even if the delay was there, it would be in the form of awaiting for the decisions of the proceedings which are adopted. Smt. Gaikwad, the learned PO while strongly objecting to the grant of these MAs told me that the Applicants were clearly informed that the second appeal against the appellate order did not lie, and therefore, their case that they waited and waited does not inspire confidence. Now, no doubt the submission of the learned PO is thought provoking but then proceedings in the nature of revision and review have got a different hue when compared with appeal, and therefore, if the Applicants who were Jail

Guards kept waiting for the outcome of their proceedings, I do not think, they could be visited with the serious consequences of having to go unheard. After-all, there cannot be any delay in absence of some lack of diligence. The issue is as to whether the conduct was so contumacious as to deprive the concerned litigant an opportunity of being heard by the judicial forum. No doubt, some inconvenience is bound to be caused to the adversary, but if the said inconvenience is capable of being set at naught by the award of cost, then the scale would be evenly balanced and the applications can be allowed.

Subject to the cost condition precedent of Rs.2000/- each of these matters (Rs.4000/- in all) payable within four weeks from today by way of deposit in the office of this Tribunal, the delay stands hereby condoned and the OA shall be heard on merit. The Applicant and the Office of this Tribunal are directed to process the matters further and get them placed before the appropriate Bench for disposal according to law. The MAs are allowed with this with no further orders.
