DATE : 12.4.2023

ORAL ORDER :

Heard Shri J.B. Choudhary, learned counsel for the applicant and Smt. M.S. Patni, learned Presenting Officer for the respondent authorities.

2. When the present matter is taken up for consideration, learned Presenting Officer has again sought time to file affidavit in reply. The request so made is strongly opposed by the learned counsel for the applicant.

3. It is the grievance of the applicant in the present O.A. that though he is entitled for leave encashment for 300 days at his credit and though initially the competent authority has forwarded such proposal specifically mentioning therein that 300 days earned leave is at the credit of applicant, now the applicant has been informed to submit a revised proposal of leave encashment of 198 days. Learned counsel appearing for the applicant submitted that nothing more has been informed to the applicant on what count or on what basis the leave is computed to the extent of 198 days instead of 300 days.

4. Having considered the subject matter, it is necessary that the respondents must file affidavit in reply in the matter. In view of the fact that due opportunities are already availed though I am inclined to grant one more opportunity with a rider that if the affidavit in reply is not filed within the given period the O.A. will be considered and decided on the given next date.
