CPO today points out that in the order dated 14.1.2021 in MA.305/2020 in OAs.271/2017 & 534/2017 some facts were remained to be mentioned before this Tribunal and those facts are required to be taken as a part of the said order. Ld. CPO submits that one Mr. Gajanan Damodhar Dakhne has filed OA No.789 of 2018 challenging the show cause notice for his termination on the ground of reservation. Earlier he was granted interim stay in that OA but however as the Tribunal found that Shri Dakhne was appointed contrary to the policy of reservation and therefore dismissed the said OA on 31.10.2018. Shri Dakhne challenged the said order before the Hon'ble High Court in W.P. No.12819 of 2018 along with similarly situated persons. The Hon'ble High Court by order dated 1.11.2018 continued the interim stay granted by this Tribunal and now the writ petition is pending before the Hon'ble High Court.

3. Ld. CPO submits that respondents-original applicants who have in fact secured more marks than cut-off of 96 cannot be appointed by the Government due to the pendency of the writ petition and interim stay granted by the Hon'ble High Court. Shri Dhakne and two others continued in their service. Therefore she submits that the exercise done by the applicant-original respondent pursuant to the order dated 14.1.2021 cannot be effected due to the pendency of the writ petition and stay granted therein. Ld. CPO submits that the Government will take up this matter before the Hon'ble High Court.

4. Ld. CPO further submits that at present there is only one vacancy available and one of the respondents-original applicants can be appointed to the vacant post. However, other candidate who has secured above 96 marks and who is eligible cannot be appointed and his appointment depends upon the outcome of writ petition.

5. One of the respondent-original applicant who has secured highest marks is to be appointed within one week by the Government as per rules.

6. Ld. Advocate for the respondents-original applicants submits that they may go to file application for intervention in the said writ petition as those petitioners are definitely not interested in moving the writ petition in view of the interim relief which is granted by the Hon'ble High Court in their favour.

7. Thus the matter is adjourned to four weeks as the applicant-original respondent-State wants to move the Hon'ble High Court in Writ Petition No.12819 of 2018.
