TRIBUNAL'S ORDERS

CORAM : Hon'ble Shri V.D. Dongre, Member (J)

DATE : 18.08.2022.

ORDER

This application is made seeking condonation of delay of about 374 days caused in filing the Original Application under Section 19 of Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 challenging the impugned communication dated 23.08.2019 issued by the respondent No.2, thereby rejecting the claim of the applicant for appointment on compassionate ground stating that the third child is born to the deceased Government servant after cutoff date of 31.12.2001 and consequently seeking appointment on compassionate ground.

2. The applicant is the eldest son of the deceased Government Servant namely Keshav Shankarrao Thavare, who died in harness on 04.06.2012 while working in the office of the respondent No.3 i.e. the Assistant Director, Auditor, Local Finance, Parbhani, Dist. Parbhani. After his death, the applicant after attaining the age of majority made application on 09.01.2017 seeking compassionate appointment. However, his claim for compassionate appointment is denied by the impugned communication dated 23.08.2019 stating that third child is born to the deceased Government servant after cutoff date of 31.12.2001. The applicant seeks to challenge the said communication by filing accompanying O.A.St.No.1224 of 2021. However, there is a delay. It is contended that the cause of action for filing the Original Application arose during the Covid-19 Pandemic Situation. The delay is not deliberate. The applicant is good case on merit. He further seeks condonation of delay.

3. The application is resisted by filing affidavit-in-reply on behalf of the respondent Nos.2 & 3, thereby denying the adverse contentions raised in the application and contenting that there is no merit in the case of the applicant for compassionate appointment. In fact, the rejection of claim was communicated to the applicant by earlier communication dated 04.01.2018 (page No.13 of P.B.). The said fact is suppressed by the applicant. Moreover, no sufficient cause is shown by the applicant for condonation of delay. Hence application is liable to be dismissed.

4. I have heard at length the arguments advanced by Shri V.V. Ingale, learned Advocate for the applicant on one hand and Shri M.S. Mahajan, learned Chief Presenting Officer for the respondents on other hand.

5. From the annexures annexed by the respondents along with their affidavit-in-reply, it appears that before issuances of impugned communication dated 23.08.2019, the applicant was informed about the rejection of claim by earlier communication dated 04.01.2018. The reference of the said communication dated 04.01.2018 also seems to be there in the impugned communication dated 23.08.2019. In view of same, it may be said that the cause of action initially arose after one year of impugned communication dated 04.01.2018.

6. It is a case of compassionate appointment. If the earlier communication dated 04.01.2018 issued by the respondent No.3 is taken into consideration, there can be delay of more than what is stated by the applicant. So far as third child is concerned, the applicant has stated that one of the children of the deceased Government i.e. the daughter is mentally ill. In view of same, the case of the applicant is required to be considered on merit, which can be done only by registering in the Original Application.

7. It is a settled principle of law that the expression “sufficient cause” is to be construed liberally. Considering the facts and circumstances of the present case, refusing to condone the delay is likely to result into defeating the cause of justice at the threshold. In view of the same, in my opinion, this is a fit case to condone the delay caused in filing the Original Application by imposing moderate costs upon the applicant. I compute the costs of Rs.1000/- (One Thousand only) on the applicant and proceed to pass

ORDER

This application is made seeking condonation of delay of about 1770 days i.e. 4 years, 2 months and 24 days caused in filing the accompanying Original Application under Section 19 of Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 seeking relief of deemed date of promotion and also seeking direction against the respondent No.1 to decide the fresh proposal submitted by the respondent No.2 dated 21.08.2012 within stipulated period.

2. The applicant is seeking deemed date of promotion on the post of Senior Social Welfare Inspector w.e.f. 17.08.1986 with all consequential benefits. Earlier the applicant filed T.A.No.60/1993 in W.P.No.1715/1988 which came to be decided by order dated 11.06.2003, thereby representation made by the applicant seeking deemed date of promotion was directed to be decided within stipulated period. The said representation was decided only in the year, 2011 and more particularly it was rejected by order dated 30.06.2011. The applicant again made representation dated 03.04.2012 seeking reconsideration and the same was rejected vide impugned communication dated 21.08.2012 which is sought to be challenged by filing the accompanying Original Application.

3. It is the contention of the applicant that after the said rejection, he made various applications during the period of 2013 to 2017 but in vain. In view of the same, there is a delay. Hence, this application for condonation of delay.

4. The application is resisted by filing affidavit-in-reply on behalf of the respondent Nos.1 to 3, thereby they denied adverse contentions raised in the application and contended that, in fact, the applicant ought to have challenged earlier rejection order dated 30.06.2011. In view of same, the limitation would start from that date and as such there is more delay than what is pleaded by the applicant. No sufficient cause is shown by the applicant for condonation of said delay. The applicant also no case on merit about the deemed date of promotion. Hence the application is liable to be rejected.

5. I have heard at length the argument advanced by Shri J.B. Choudhary, learned Advocate for the applicant on one hand and Shri I.S. Thorat, learned Presenting Officer for the respondents on other hand.

6. Considering the application and affidavit-in-reply, prima-facie it seems that similar rejection order was passed on 30.06.2011 before passing of impugned order dated 21.08.2012. After passing of order dated 30.06.2011 by the respondent No.1, the applicant had made representation on 03.04.2012. In view of the same, the limitation would start from 30.06.2011 and not from 21.08.2012 as sought to be contended by the applicant. In view of that, the delay is about 5 year and 5 months.

7. It is a case of deemed date of promotion. The applicant is fighting for his legitimate rights. It also appears that the applicant after passing of impugned order made various representations during the period of 2013 to 2017. In view of same, as per settled

M.A.197/2018 In

principle of law, this is a fit case to consider liberally. It is a settled principle of law that the expression “sufficient cause” is to be construed liberally. Considering the facts and circumstances of the present case, refusing to condone the delay is likely to result into defeating the cause of justice at the threshold. From the nature of reliefs sought for by the applicant, it cannot be said that somebody else would likely to be affected in case relief is granted to the applicant. In view of same, in my considered opinion, this is a fit case to condone the delay of about 5 years and 5 months caused in filing the Original Application by imposing moderate costs upon the applicant. I compute the costs of Rs.2000/- (Two Thousand only) on the applicant and proceed to pass the following order: -

ORDER

TRIBUNAL'S ORDERS

CORAM : Hon'ble Shri V.D. Dongre, Member (J)

DATE : 18.08.2022.

ORDER

By this application, the applicant is seeking condonation of delay of about 1140 days caused in filing the Original Application under Section 19 of Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 challenging the impugned communication dated 05.05.2021 passed by the respondent No.3 thereby denying the benefit of compassionate appointment to the applicant and seeking compassionate appointment.

2. The father of the applicant was in service with the respondent No.3 as Laborer since 01.06.1985 onward. His services were regularized on 01.10.1988. He died in harness on 16.10.1998. Subsequently, the mother of the applicant also died on 04.07.1999. Thereby the applicant became orphan at the age of three years. The applicant attained the age of majority on 16.06.2013. In the year, 2014 he passed his 12th examination. He made application for compassionate appointment only on 10.04.2015. His application came to be rejected vide communication dated 05.05.2021. After making application, the applicant made several representations seeking compassionate appointment.

3. It is contended that the cause of action for filing the Original Application arose after lapse of one year after his first representation dated 10.04.2015. In view of same, there is delay. However, the said delay is not deliberate or intentional. Hence, this application for condonation of delay.

4. Record shows that in spite of grant of opportunities, affidavit-in-reply is not filed on behalf of the respondents.

5. I have heard at length the arguments advanced by Shri S.N. Pawde, learned Advocate holding for Shri M.K. Bhosale, learned Advocate for the applicant on one hand and Shri V.R. Bhumkar, learned Presenting Officer for the respondents on other hand.

6. If the impugned order dated 05.05.2021 rejecting the claim of the applicant on compassionate ground is taken into consideration, there is no delay as a accompanying Original Application along with delay condonation application is filed on 30.06.2021. However, when his application for compassionate appointment is made after attainment of majority on 10.04.2015, he was not communicated anything. Therefore, the applicant said to have made representations from October, 2019 till 10.11.2020. In view of same, limitation would start after lapse of one year from the date of his first application dated 10.04.2015. At appears that the applicant was not attentive immediately after filing of his application for compassionate appointment. But that cannot be said to be deliberate. Thereby he had nothing to gain. The applicant is an orphan. In the circumstances, the case of the applicant is required to be considered sympathetically on merit.

7. It is a settled principle of law that the expression “sufficient cause” is to be construed liberally. Considering the facts and circumstances of the present case, refusing to condone the delay is likely to

TRIBUNAL'S ORDERS

CORAM : Hon'ble Shri V.D. Dongre, Member (J)

DATE : 18.08.2022.

ORDER

This application is made seeking condonation of delay of about 4 years 4 months and 26 days caused in filing the accompanying Original Application under Section 19 of Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 seeking compassionate appointment and seeking direction to the respondent Nos.2 to 4 to decide the representation made by the applicant No.1 and direct to include the name of the applicant No.2 in place of applicant No.1 in waiting list prepared for appointment on compassionate ground.

2. The applicant No.1 is widow and the applicant No.2 is son of the deceased Government Servant named Piraji Moglaji Mamulwar, who died in harness on 11.05.1999 while working as a Peon (Class-IV) in the office of respondent No.4.

M.A.419/2021 In
O.A.St.1799/2021

3. After the death of the Government Servant, the applicant No. 1 i.e. the widow filed application on 01.05.2000. Her name was taken in the waiting list. However, till she crossed the age of 40 years, she was not appointed. The applicant No.2 i.e. the son of the deceased Government servant attained the age of majority on or about 08.05.2009. After the applicant No.1 become age barred in the year, 2008 she made application dated 15.05.2008 to the respondent No.2 for getting compassionate appointment to her son i.e. the applicant No.2 in her place. The name of the applicant No.2 was not taken in the waiting list. Representations were made pursuing the compassionate appointment. Ultimately, the applicants filed proceedings before the Civil Court seeking compassionate appointment which came to be decided being rejected in 2021 on 08.02.2021. Thereafter, the accompanying Original Application along with this delay condonation application was presented on 21.12.2021. In the circumstances it is contended that the delay is not deliberate or intentional. Hence this application.

4. Record shows that in spite of grant of opportunities, affidavit-in-reply is not filed.

5. I have heard at length the arguments advanced by Shri H.P. Jadhav, learned Advocate for the applicants on one hand and Shri M.S. Mahajan, learned Chief Presenting Officer for the respondents on other hand.

6. Perusal of facts on record would show that the applicant was pursuing the remedy seeking compassionate appointment by filing proceedings in the Civil Court during the period of 2016 to 2021. That can be considered as seeking relief bona-fide. However, such proceedings were rejected by order dated 08.02.2021. During the period of 2012 to 2016, it appears that the applicants were pursuing the matter by making various representations. The applicant No.2 attained the age of majority on or about 08.05.2009. In view of same, some negligence can be attributed to the applicants being not very attentive during the period of 2009 to 2012. However, the said negligence cannot be said to be deliberate or intentional one. Thereby the applicant had nothing to gain.

7. It is a settled principle of law that the expression “sufficient cause” is to be construed liberally. The applicants are seeking compassionate appointment for the applicant No.2 who is son of the deceased Government servant. Considering the facts and circumstances of the present case, refusing to condone the delay is likely to result into defeating the cause of justice at the threshold. In view of the same, in my opinion, this is a fit case to condone the delay of about 4 years, 4 months and 26 days caused in filing the Original Application by imposing moderate costs upon the applicants. I compute the costs of Rs.1,500/- (One Thousand Five Hundred only) on the applicants and proceed to pass the following order: -

TRIBUNAL'S ORDERS

CORAM : Hon'ble Shri V.D. Dongre, Member (J)

DATE : 18.08.2022.

ORAL ORDER :

Heard Shri S.D. Joshi, learned Advocate for the applicant and Smt. M.S. Patni, learned Presenting Officer for the respondents.

2. The present matter is not on today's board. It is taken on board at the request of learned Advocate for the applicant.

3. This application is made seeking amendment in the Original Application.

4. The Original Application is filed seeking directions against the respondents to verify and fix the pay of the applicant as per order dated 22.11.2016 (Exh. 'D') and as per letter of respondent No.5 dated 07.03.2016 (Exh. 'C' collectively) and to pay the pension and pensionary benefits as per said verification within stipulated time.

5. In the Original Application, in fact the applicant has referred to objection dated 29.12.2016 raised by the respondent No.4 i.e. the Pay Verification Unit.

6. By the proposed amendment, the applicant is raising pleading assailing the said objection being not tenable and consequentially seeking to amend prayer clause in respect of said objection.

7. Learned P.O. for the respondents opposed the submission made on behalf of the applicant.

8. Considering the nature of proposed amendment I found that the same is not going to change the nature of Original Application as the proposed amendment is by way of specific assailment and challenge to the objection raised by the Pay Verification Unit. In fact the proposed amendment would be just and necessary to determine the real question of controversy between the parties. Hence I proceed to pass the following order:-

ORDER

- (A) The Misc. Application No.335/2022 in O.A.No.200/2018 is allowed.
- (B) Amendment as prayed for is granted.
- (C) The applicant to carry out the amendment within the period of one week from the date of this order and to serve the copy of amended O.A. on the other side.
- (D) No order as to costs.

OFFICE ORDER

TRIBUNAL'S ORDERS

CORAM : Hon'ble Justice Shri P.R. Bora,
Vice Chairman
AND
Hon'ble Shri Bijay Kumar, Member (A)

DATE : 18.8.2022

ORAL ORDER :

Heard Shri H.V. Tungar, learned counsel for the applicant Shri V.R. Bhumkar, learned Presenting Officer for the respondent authorities.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant seeks leave of this Tribunal to delete the name of the Hon'ble Governor from the list of the respondents. Leave granted as prayed for. The applicant shall delete the name of the Hon'ble Governor forthwith.

3. It is brought to our notice that the notices in this matter have already been issued. In view of the fact that the name of the Hon'ble Governor now stands deleted, the said notice is recalled.

4. It has to be stated that while ordering issuance of notice in the present O.A. inadvertently it could not be noticed by this Tribunal also that the Hon'ble Governor has been added as respondent in the present matter or else before issuance of the notice itself the counsel for the applicant would have been required by us to delete the name of the Hon'ble Governor from the array of respondents. Whenever, it was noticed that the Hon'ble Governor has been added as respondent, this Tribunal has invariably directed the parties to delete the name of the Hon'ble Governor. In the present matter neither it was brought to our notice by the learned counsel for the applicant nor by the learned Presenting Officer that the Hon'ble Governor has been added as respondent No. 3 in the present matter. In fact, while scrutinizing the O.A., office must have noticed the aforesaid fact and objection must have been raised at the initial stage and the said fact must have been distinctly noted down by the office in the scrutiny sheet. The office also did not seem to have taken the due care and lastly only because of inadvertence this Tribunal also could not notice the said fact. Today, when it is brought to our notice and the leave is sought for deleting the name of Hon'ble Governor, leave has been granted and the notice has also been recalled.

5. We regret for the inconvenience caused to the Hon'ble Governor.

6. Learned Presenting Officer shall communicate this order today itself to the office of the Hon'ble Governor.

OFFICE ORDER

TRIBUNAL'S ORDERS

CORAM : Hon'ble Justice Shri P.R. Bora,
Vice Chairman
AND
Hon'ble Shri Bijay Kumar, Member (A)

DATE : 18.8.2022

ORAL ORDER :

Heard Ms. Preeti R. Wankhade, learned counsel for the applicant Shri M.S. Mahajan, learned Chief Presenting Officer for the respondent authorities.

2. The applicant belongs to Open Category and possesses the qualifications of M.B.B.S. and diploma in Orthopedics. In the year 2010 respondent No. 1 had issued a Government Resolution for filling in the posts under D.M.E.R. on ad hoc basis till finalization of policy of recruitment of permanent Medical Officers. In the year 2012 and more particularly on 24.1.2012 an advertisement was issued by respondent No. 4 for filling in 15 sanctioned vacant posts of Medical Officers, Group-A (Class-II) in the Swami Ramanand Tirth Rural Government Medical College and Hospital at Ambajogai. Respondent No. 1 had prior to the issuance of the said advertisement has constituted committee for undertaking the selection process for various posts in Government Medical Colleges. The said committee was comprised of highly qualified official/s from the Medical Education Department and the other officials concerning the relevant subject and representative of the Socially Backward Class. The applicant had appeared before the said committee and participated in the selection process undertaken by it. The applicant was selected and appointed on the subject post and is working continuously on the said post till this date.

3. It is the grievance of the applicant that now the Recruitment Rules are framed and according to the said Recruitment Rules the process of recruitment has been commenced by issuing advertisement in that regard. In the said advertisement for the Open Class Category candidates upper age limit is prescribed as 38 years. Applicant has crossed the said age limit and hence cannot apply for the said post. It is further the grievance of the applicant that even after serving for more than 10 years, he has not been regularized and is now under the threat of discontinuation.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant has brought to our notice that similarly situated other candidates have approached the Single Bench of this Tribunal with a request for regularization of their services and today itself the judgment is delivered by the Single Bench directing the respondents to regularize their services of the applicants therein. In the aforesaid circumstances, the applicant has filed the present O.A. with a prayer for regularization of his services with consequential benefits. The applicant has prayed for interim relief thereby requesting to direct the respondents to keep one post vacant till decision of the present O.A. and not to discontinue the applicant till then.

5. Learned counsel appearing for the applicant submits that the applicant was having an option to file the Original Application with a prayer for regularization of his services as were filed by the similarly situated other Medical Officers. Learned counsel further submitted that however, in view of the subsequent developments, more particularly that the recruitment process has now commenced and if the new recruitees are appointed the natural consequence of it will be retrenchment or removal of the present applicant. Learned counsel further submitted that in the circumstances the applicant has approached this Tribunal with the prayer of regularization, as well as, for restraining the respondents from discontinuing the services of the applicant and to keep one post vacant till decision of the present Original Application.

6. Learned Chief Presenting Officer has sought time to file affidavit in reply on behalf of the respondents. It is further submitted that for want of information the statement also cannot be made on behalf of the respondents as about the progress in the recruitment process.

7. We have carefully considered the submissions advanced by the learned counsel appearing for the applicant and the learned Presenting Officer.

8. From the record it is quite evident that the applicant was duly selected by the Divisional Selection Committee in the year 2012 and since then he is discharging his duties on the subject post. From the record it also reveals that at the relevant time the recruitment of the applicant was made on the basis of the G.R. dated 10.8.2001 r/w G.R. dated 1.7.2010. It is further not in dispute that at the relevant time there were no Recruitment Rules framed insofar as recruitment in the Medical Colleges are concerned. Undisputedly Recruitment Rules are framed in March, 2022 and thereafter for the first time the recruitment process has been commenced. The applicant obviously cannot participate in the said selection process for the reason that he has crossed upper age limit prescribed for applying for the subject post. In the similar facts and circumstances, the Division Bench of the Hon'ble Bombay High Court Bench at Nagpur in W.P. No. 2046/2010 had granted relief to the similarly placed candidates. It further appears that when the applicant had worked on the subject post for more than 10 years, his services need to be protected. As such, we find that there is prima facie case made out by the applicant and if no interim relief is granted his rights are likely to be prejudicially affected. It is to be further stated that in fact, the appropriate remedy for the applicant would have been to file the O.A. only with a prayer of regularization of services as has been done by his colleagues. However, the reason for not adopting the said course has been explained by the learned counsel. In the circumstances, we deem it appropriate to pass the following order: -

ORDER

- (i) Issue notices to the respondents, returnable on 29.09.2022.
- (ii) Tribunal may take the case for final disposal at this stage and a separate notice for final disposal shall not be issued.
- (iii) Applicant is authorized and directed to serve on Respondents intimation / notice of date of hearing duly authenticated by Registry, along with complete paper book of case. Respondents are put to notice that the case would be taken up for final disposal at the stage of admission hearing.
- (iv) This intimation / notice is ordered under Rule 11 of the Maharashtra Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1988 and the questions such as limitation and alternate remedy are kept open.

- (v) The service may be done by Hand delivery, speed post, courier and acknowledgement be obtained and produced along with Affidavit of compliance in the Registry as far as possible before the returnable date fixed as above. Applicant is directed to file Affidavit of compliance and notice.
- (vi) The respondents are directed not to discontinue the services of the applicant until further orders of this Tribunal.
- (vii) S.O. to 29.09.2022.
- (viii) Steno copy and hamdust granted to both parties.
