2. By filing the O.A. annexed with the M.A., quashment of termination order dated 13-05-2019 is sought. It is the contention of the applicant that before the limitation for filing the O.A. expires, Corona Pandemic had begun and in the circumstances, the applicant could not take necessary steps for filing the O.A. within stipulated period. Learned Counsel for the applicant submits that if the delay is not condoned, applicant may lose an opportunity of prosecuting his matter on merit and since it relates to the termination of services of the applicant, it is the question of his survival. In the circumstances, prayer is made for condonation of delay.

3. Learned P.O. has submitted that the reasons as are assigned by the applicant are not just and

ORAL ORDER :

Heard Shri D.P. Pawar Pathrekar, learned counsel for the applicant and Shri N.U. Yadav, learned Presenting Officer for the respondent authorities.

2. By this application the applicant is seeking condonation of delay caused in filing the Original Application.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that by filing the Original application the applicant has challenged the order dated 25.03.2021 directing thereby the applicant to deposit the rent along with fine of the Government quarter which allegedly not vacated by him.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the said order was passed and communicated on 25.03.2021 and due to outbreak of Covid-19 pandemic and consequential lockdown declared in the State of Maharashtra, he could not take legal advice so also approached this Tribunal within time.

//2// M.A. 259/2023 in
O.A.St. 976/2023

5. Learned counsel for the applicant further submits that the applicant has suffered from pecuniary loss. He is retired employee and entire family is depending upon his pension. The applicant also suffered from his ill health during the said period. Learned counsel submits that delay is not intentional and deliberate one and there is no inaction on the part of the applicant. The application thus deserves to be allowed.

6. Learned P.O. has strongly resisted the application on the ground that the applicant has not satisfactorily explained the delay. There is no substance in the application and the application is liable to be rejected.

7. It appears that the applicant is at present 63 years old and he is a retired employee. The applicant came to be retired in the year 2018 and the impugned order came to be passed in the year 2021. The applicant was suffering from ill health and thus not in a position to vacate the Government quarter. Further the applicant could not approach his counsel and file the Original Application within time due to outbreak of Covid-19 pandemic and consequential lockdown declared in the State of Maharashtra. In view of same, there is no inaction on the part of the applicant and the applicant is prevented from sufficient cause to approach this Tribunal within time. Thus the delay deserves to be condoned. However, the applicant is required to be saddled with costs. In view of same, I am inclined to condone the delay caused in filing the accompanying Original Application by imposing costs upon the applicant. I compute the costs of Rs. 100/- (One Hundred only) on the applicant and proceed to pass the following order: -
