2. Office has raised objection as about the jurisdiction. It is stated that the applicant's husband was working as Senior Clerk at Yeotmal and died at Yeotmal and hence the matter may not be considered by this Tribunal and the jurisdiction would lie with the Nagpur Bench of the Tribunal.

3. Learned Counsel for the applicant submitted that after the death of her husband she is residing within the jurisdiction of this Tribunal. Whatever correspondence was made by her was from this place and the communications are received which have given rise to file O.A. by the applicant are received to her on the said address i.e. within the jurisdiction of this Tribunal. It is further contended that office of respondent i.e. Commissioner, Soil and Water Conservation Department is at Aurangabad i.e. within the jurisdiction of this Tribunal.

4. Considering the facts as aforesaid objection is set aside. O.A. is very well maintainable before this Tribunal. Hence, O.A. be registered and numbered in accordance with law.

5. After registration of O.A. issue notice to respondents, returnable on 23-08-2023.

6. Tribunal may take the case for final disposal at once and separate notice for final disposal shall not be issued.

7. Applicant is authorized and directed to serve on respondent/s intimation/notice of date of hearing duly authenticated by Registry, along with complete paper book of the case. Respondents are put to notice that the case would be taken up for final disposal at the stage of admission hearing.

8. This intimation/notice is ordered under Rule 11 of the Maharashtra Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1988, and the questions such as limitation and alternate remedy are kept open.

ORAL ORDER :

Heard Shri Jiwan J. Patil, learned counsel holding for Shri Adinath B. Jagtap, learned counsel for the applicant and Mrs. Deepali S. Deshpande, learned Presenting Officer for the respondent authorities.

2. It is the grievance of the applicant that within few days of his resuming charge of the post of Godown Keeper vide order dated 30.6.2023 he has now been shifted from the said post and is assuming work of Vasuli, Dharmaday (वसुली, धर्मादाय). Learned counsel submitted that without assigning any reason the aforesaid order has been passed. Learned counsel submits that the applicant has not yet handed over the charge of his post. In the circumstances, prayer has been made by learned counsel for the applicant to grant interim relief, thereby directing the respondents to continue the charge of existing post of the applicant with him till filing of the affidavit in reply by the respondents.

3. Learned Presenting Officer for want of instructions has expressed her inability to make any submission on the fact. It is however, submitted by her that the impugned order cannot be said to be an order of transfer and it appears to be an internal arrangement made by head of the office considering the administrative need or administrative convenience.

4. After having heard both the parties, it appears to me that shifting of an employee from his/her existing post also may amount to his/her transfer as defined under Section 2 (g) of the Maharashtra Government Servants Regulation of Transfers and Prevention of Delay in Discharge of Official Duties Act, 2005. The Government may come out with the particulars which factors necessitated the shifting the applicant from his existing post by filing affidavit in reply till 2.8.2023, till then the respondents shall allow the applicant to continue to work on his existing post.

(Dr. Namdev P. June Vs. State of Maharashtra & Ors.)

CORAM : Hon'ble Shri Justice P.R. Bora,
Vice Chairman

DATE : 19.7.2023

ORAL ORDER :

Heard S/shri J.B. Choudhary, Shamsunder B. Patil & K.G. Salunke, learned counsel for the respective applicants in respective matters and S/hri I.S. Thorat, B.S. Deokar & Smt. Deepali S. Deshpande, learned Presenting Officer for the respondent authorities in respective matters.

2. Today, when the present matters are taken up for consideration, Shri I.S. Thorat, learned Presenting Officer submitted the copy of communication dated 18.7.2023 received to the office of Chief Presenting Officer at Aurangabad from the State, more particularly from Medical Education and Drugs Department. Along with the said communication the minutes of meeting held on 17.5.2023 of the Civil Services Board are annexed. The communication along with annexure is taken on record and copy of the said document is provided to the learned counsel appearing for the respective applicants.

3. It is the specific contention commonly raised on behalf of all the applicants that none of them has completed the ordinary tenure on the existing post at the existing station. As has been submitted on behalf of Dr. Ankushe, applicant in O.A. No. 631/2023 he has spent only 9 months on his existing post. As per the contention of Dr. Gaikwad, applicant in O.A. No. 632/2023, he is working as Associate Professor at Aurangabad w.e.f. 10.6.2022. According to the contention raised by Dr. Kachanerkar, applicant in O.A. No. 633/2023 he resumed at Aurangabad on 7.11.2020 and he was transferred at Aurangabad vide order dated 3.11.2020. As per say of Dr. June, applicant in O.A. No. 635/2023, he is working as Associate Professor at Ambajogai w.e.f. 19.3.2021.

4. As has been submitted by Shri Thorat, learned P.O. appearing for State authorities Dr. Gaikwad is working at Aurangabad since the year 2012. Previous to 10.6.2022 he worked as Assistant Professor. According to respondents, Dr. Kachanerkar is working at Aurangabad since 7.11.2020 on the post of Associate Professor. As further submitted by learned P.O. Dr. June is working at Ambajogai since 2015. Prior to year 2015 he worked as Assistant Professor. It was thus, sought to be contended by learned P.O. that Dr. Gaikwad and Dr. June both have completed their ordinary tenure at one station i.e. of 3 years.

5. According to the submissions made on behalf of the applicants the impugned transfers are annual general transfers and as such according to them, the respondents were bound to observe the provisions under Section 4(1), (2) & (3) of the Maharashtra Government Servants Regulation of Transfers and Prevention of Delay In Discharge of Official Duties Act, 2005 (for short "the Transfer Act, 2005). It has been commonly argued that in all these matters the aforesaid provisions are not followed. It has also been argued that though from the nature of the orders issued, these orders appear to be of the transfers as are annually made, having regard to the date of transfers these orders are the orders passed midterm or mid-tenure. It has also been argued that the procedure for effecting midterm or mid-tenure transfers has also not been followed.

6. While considering the aforesaid submissions advanced on behalf of the applicants, as well as, the respondents and more particularly while going through the contents of the documents produced on record today i.e. the minutes of the meeting of the Civil Services Board, since it could not be gathered as to by invoking which powers under the Transfer Act, 2005 the impugned transfer orders are issued, a query was made with learned P.O. to state as to which provision has been invoked by the State Government while directing the transfers of these applicants and/or while issuing the impugned orders of transfer. At this juncture, it is also to be noted that in none of the orders any provision has been referred to or cited. Learned P.O. submitted that a concrete submission will be made by him after taking instructions from the competent authority, as to by invoking which powers under the Transfer Act, 2005, the impugned orders are issued. Learned P.O. therefore, sought time of a week.

7. Learned counsel for the applicants while fairly conceding for providing such time to learned P.O. further submitted that in place of the applicants none other officer has yet been posted. It is their further contention that the applicants are stated to have been relieved one sided. It is not in dispute that Dr. June has not yet been relieved. In view of discussion made hereinbefore and having regard to the submissions made by both sides, I deem it appropriate to pass the following order: -

ORDER

(i) Issue notice to respondents, returnable on 1.8.2023, till then the respondents shall permit Dr. Rajendra T. Ankushe, Dr. Anil A. Gaikwad & Dr. Nilesh Kachanerkar to discharge their duties of their existing posts. Insofar as Dr. Namdev P. June is concerned, he has not yet been relived from his existing post and shall not be relieved till next date.

(ii) Tribunal may take the case for final disposal at once and separate notice for final disposal shall not be issued.

(iii) Applicant is authorized and directed to serve on respondent/s intimation/notice of date of hearing duly authenticated by Registry, along with complete paper book of the case. Respondents are put to notice that the case would be taken up for final disposal at the stage of admission hearing.

(iv) This intimation/notice is ordered under Rule 11 of the Maharashtra Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1988, and the questions such as limitation and alternate remedy are kept open.

VICE CHAIRMAN

ORIGINAL APPLICATION NO. 634/2023
(Shri Bhushan B. Rao Vs. State of Maharashtra & Ors.)

CORAM : Hon'ble Shri Justice P.R. Bora,
Vice Chairman

DATE : 19.7.2023

ORAL ORDER :

Heard Shri J.B. Choudhary, learned counsel for the applicant, Shri I.S. Thorat, learned Presenting Officer for the respondent authorities and Shri Rahul A. Shinde, learned counsel for respondent no. 6.

2. Learned counsel for respondent no. 6 has sought time to file affidavit in reply on behalf of respondent no. 6. Learned Presenting Officer has submitted the communication dated 18.7.2023 received to the office of Chief Presenting Officer at Aurangabad from the State Government, more particularly from the Medical Education & Drugs Department. Along with the said communication the minutes of meeting held on 17.5.2023 of the Civil Services Board are annexed. The aforesaid document is taken on record and copy of said document is provided to the other side.

3. Learned counsel for respondent no. 6 has submitted the office order dated 17.7.2023 issued by the Dean of Shri. Bhausaheb Hire Government Medical College, Dhule. He also submitted the copy of the office order dated 14.7.2023, whereby the applicant Dr. Bhushan B. Rao has been relieved from the post of Associate Professor in O.B.G.Y. Both the documents are taken on record and copies of the said documents are given to the parties concerned.

4. Learned Presenting Officer has also sought time for filing affidavit in reply. Learned counsel for the applicant has however submitted that till the time respondents file their affidavit in reply an interim order be passed in favour of the applicant, thereby directing the respondents to allow the applicant to continue to discharge duties on the post of Associate Professor in O.B.G.Y.

5. Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that the transfer of the applicant has been ordered only with an object to accommodate respondent no. 6 in his place. Learned counsel submitted that there was no proposal ever moved for the transfer of the applicant, though such proposals were made for the transfers of his colleague Associate Professors. Learned counsel submitted that present is case of undue favoritism to respondent no. 6. Learned counsel further submitted that there are certain patent illegalities also, which make out a case for grant of interim relief in favour of the applicant. Learned counsel pointed out that the respondent no. 6 was selected for the post of Associate Professor by the M.P.S.C. and vide order dated 18.1.2023 was given posting on the said post of Associate Professor at Cancer Diagnostic Centre at Aurangabad. Learned counsel pointed out that in spite of posting order as aforesaid the respondent no. 6 did not resume the duties of the post on which she was appointed. Learned counsel pointed out that the respondent no. 6 continued to work as Assistant Professor O.B.G.Y. at Government Medical College, Dhule. Learned counsel further pointed out that respondent no. 6 was relieved from the post of Assistant Professor on 17.7.2023. Learned counsel pointed out that when the respondent no. 6 was working as an Assistant Professor at Dhule till 16.7.2023 and had not joined at Aurangabad in pursuance of the order dated 18.1.2023, it is surprising that the order dated 13.7.2023 shows respondent no. 6 working at Cancer Diagnostic Centre at Aurangabad as an Associate Professor and is shown to have been transferred in place of the applicant at Government Medical College at Dhule. Learned counsel further pointed out that the Civil Services Board has specifically rejected the request of respondent no. 6 for her appointment at Dhule instead of at Aurangabad. Learned counsel submitted that by using political pressure the respondent no.6 has procured the impugned order and only with an intent to accommodate her that the applicant has been shifted from Dhule to Aurangabad in his midterm.

6. Learned Presenting Officer and learned counsel for respondent no. 6 have pointed out that the applicant has been relieved from his existing post on 14.7.2023 and respondent no. 6 has been allowed to resume duties in his place w.e.f. 17.7.2023. In premise of the facts as aforesaid, it has been argued by learned P.O. that the prayer for interim relief has become infructuous and no such order can be now passed.

7. I am, however, not convinced with the submission so made. From the documents, which are produced on record by the applicant, it is apparently revealed that the respondent no. 6 did never join on the place of her appointment made vide order dated 18.1.2023. The documents on the contrary reveal that till 17.7.2023 the respondent no. 6 was discharging his duties as an Assistant Professor at Government Medical College at Dhule. The documents further reveal that though request was made by the respondent no. 6 to give her posting of Associate Professor at Dhule, the said request was turned down by the Civil Services Board. However, it appears that respondent no. 6 got her request approved by the competent authority, since the documents placed on record by the learned P.O. reveal that ultimately the Hon'ble Chief Minister allowed the request of respondent no. 6.

8. The question further arises, even in such circumstances whether the respondents could have given her appointment on the post of Associate Professor at Dhule ? The answer is 'No'.

9. The documents on record reveal that the respondent No.6 was appointed on the post of Associate Professor as direct recruit by the M.P.S.C. vide order dated 18.01.2023. Perusal of the said order reveals that the respondent No.6 was appointed on the said post vide order dated 18.01.2023 on probation. The probation period was of two years and that was to commence after respondent No.6 resumes the charge of the said post. The documents on record reveal that respondent No.6 did not join at the Cancer Diagnostic Centre at Chhatrapati Sambhajnagar in pursuance of the order dated 18.01.2023. The documents further reveal that till 16.07.2023, respondent No.6 was working as an Assistant Professor at Government Medical College, Dhule and was not relieved from the said post. It is thus, evident that respondent No.6 did never take charge of the post of Associate Professor. In the circumstances, even if the respondents were intending to consider the request of respondent No.6, the respondents must have given her an appointment at Dhule on the post of Associate Professor on probation. However, the order dated

13.07.2023 demonstrates that she has been transferred from Cancer Diagnostic Centre at Chhatrapati Sambhajanagar to Shri. Bhausaheb Hire Government Medical College, Dhule. Respondent No.6 who did never join at Cancer Diagnostic Centre at Chhatrapati Sambhajanagar has been shown to have been working at the said place and is shown to have been transferred by invoking the provisions under Rule 4(4) (2) and 4 (5) of Maharashtra Government Servants Regulation of Transfers and Prevention of Delay in Discharge of Official Duties Act, 2005.

10. It is quite apparent that by completely overlooking the fact that the respondent No.6 did not join the post of Associate Professor as per order dated 18.01.2023 and that she was to be given appointment and not the order of transfer, the respondents have issued the order dated 13.07.2023. From the facts as aforesaid there remains no doubt that only with an intention to accommodate respondent No.6 that the applicant has been shifted from Dhule to Aurangabad. The applicant has thus made out prima-facie case for granting interim relief in his favour. After having considered the entire facts and circumstances, I deem it appropriate to pass the following order:-
