2. By this Misc. Application the applicant is seeking condonation of delay caused in filing the accompanying Original Application.

3. There is a delay of 1 year and 4 months in filing the accompanying Original Application.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant was serving in the police department as a Assistant Sub Inspector. During the service tenure the applicant was eligible to appear for the examination for the promotional post of Police Sub-Inspector and even though the applicant has secured satisfactory marks, the other employees who have secured less mark than the applicant were promoted by the authorities. //2// M.A. 174/2023 in
O.A.St. 506/2023

There is no inaction on the part of the applicant. However there is no communication from the respondents as to the reason of not granting him promotion. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the application seeking condonation of delay deserves to be allowed.

5. Learned Presenting Officer submits that there is no satisfactory explanation to the delay caused in filing the accompanying Original Application. The application is thus liable to be rejected.

6. It appears that though the applicant has submitted the representation from time to time, however, his representations are not considered till this date. There is no inaction on the part of the applicant and there is no intentional and deliberate delay. Thus considering the entire aspect of the application, I am inclined to condone the delay. Hence, the following order:-
