DATE : 28.03.2024

ORAL ORDER :

Heard Shri G.N.Kulkarni, learned Counsel for the applicant and Smt. Resha Deshmukh, learned Presenting Officer for the respondent authorities.

2. There is delay of 2180 days in filing the accompanying O.A.

3. Learned Counsel for the applicant submitted that the applicant had joined the services as Badli Worker at Dr. Shankarrao Chavan Government Medical College and Hospital, Vishnupuri, Nanded - Respondent no.3 and since then he is continuously working as a Badli Worker. He is being given appointment of 29 days every month. The applicant is persuading the respondents to regularize his services. Learned Counsel submits that as per the Government policy declared in this regard, Joint Director has called report from Dean, Dr. Shankarrao Chavan Government Medical College and Hospital, Vishnupuri, Nanded and called list of

=2= M.A.NO.204/2023 IN O.A.NO.697/2022

Badli Workers like applicant and the same is pending before the Government.

4. Learned Counsel submits that the Government by issuing G.R. dated 07-12-2015 has constituted a committee for regularization of Badli Workers, however, the said process is still going on. Learned Counsel has placed on record the letter dated 14-02-2020 addressed by the Dean, Dr. Shankarrao Chavan Government Medical College and Hospital, Vishnupuri, Nanded to the Commissioner, Medical Education, Mumbai wherein the list of the employees is annexed and it has been informed in the said letter that there are Badli Workers working in the Hospital for more than 25 years and even they had worked effectively in the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic.

5. Learned Counsel submits that there is recurring cause of action since issue is not finally decided. As such, learned Counsel submits that the delay deserves to be condoned as there is no inaction on the part of the applicant and there is no deliberate or intentional delay.

=3= M.A.NO.204/2023 IN O.A.NO.697/2022

6. Learned P.O. strongly opposed for condoning the delay on the ground that sufficient reasons are not mentioned and the delay has not been explained satisfactorily, and therefore, the application is liable to be rejected.

7. By filing the accompanying O.A. applicant is seeking directions to the respondents to regularize his services as Badli Worker in class-IV cadre. It is not disputed that the applicant is working as Badli Worker in the Respondent no.3 Government Hospital for more than 25 years and same is reflected in the letter dated 14-02-2022 issued by the Dean, Dr. Shankarrao Chavan Government Medical College and Hospital, Vishnupuri, Nanded. I, thus, agree with the submissions made by the applicant that there is recurring cause of action as the issue is still pending.

8. There is no inaction on the part of the applicant, so also the delay is not intentional or deliberate. It appears that unless and until the decision is taken in this regard by the Government, which will be in consonance with the decision taken in respect of Badli Workers working in

=4= M.A.NO.204/2023 IN O.A.NO.697/2022

J.J.Hospital, Mumbai, there would be a recurring cause of action. I am, thus, inclined to condone the delay subject to costs. Hence, the following order:

ORDER

- [i] M.A. is hereby allowed and disposed of.
- [ii] Delay of 2180 days caused in filing the O.A. is condoned, subject to payment of costs of Rs.1000/- to be deposited with the Registry.
- [iii] Office objections, if any, be removed by the applicant.

DATE : 28.03.2024

ORAL ORDER :

Heard Shri R.A. Joshi, learned counsel for the applicants and Shri Mahesh Bharaswadkar, learned Chief Presenting Officer for the respondent authorities.

2. Office has raised objection that learned counsel has not given complete address of respondent no. 03. Learned counsel submits that the respondent no. 02 be directed to provide address of respondent no. 03 to the applicant so that he can rectify the said objection. In the circumstances, respondent no. 02 to provide complete address of respondent no. 03 to the applicant within one week.

3. It is the case of the applicant that 4 times the answer key has been modified in the present matter. Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that in the earlier 03 modifications, no change was caused in the answer to the disputed question and the said answer came to be modified in the 4th round of modification. Learned counsel submitted that before that all the stages were successfully completed by the applicant up to the stage of document verification. Learned counsel further submitted that in the modification of the answer key the marks scored by the applicant are reduced by 02 and that has caused serious prejudice to the applicant. Learned counsel submitted that the answer given by the applicant is the only correct answer. However, since it has been held to be a wrong answer, the applicant is likely to lose his chance of selection. In the circumstances, the applicant has prayed for restraining order against the respondents not to exhaust the wait list, even if the occasion arises, till the decision of the present O.A.

4. Learned Chief Presenting Officer sought time to file the affidavit in reply on behalf of the respondents. Learned C.P.O. on instructions submitted that because of the code of conduct the further process is not likely to take place unless the elections are over. In the circumstances, I deem it appropriate to give 04 weeks' time to the respondents to file the affidavit in reply keeping the point of interim relief open. Hence, the following order:-

5. Issue notice to the respondents, returnable on 02.05.2024. Point of Interim Relief is kept open.

6. Tribunal may take the case for final disposal at once and separate notice for final disposal shall not be issued.

7. Applicant is authorized and directed to serve on respondent/s intimation/notice of date of hearing duly authenticated by Registry, along with complete paper book of the case. Respondents are put to notice that the case would be taken up for final disposal at the stage of admission hearing.

8. This intimation/notice is ordered under Rule 11 of the Maharashtra Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1988, and the questions such as limitation and alternate remedy are kept open.
