ORIGINAL APPLICATION NO. 158/2023
(Latif Ibrahim Pathan Vs. State of Maharashtra & Ors.)

CORAM : Hon'ble Shri Justice P.R. Bora,
Vice Chairman

DATE : 28.2.2023

ORAL ORDER :

Heard Shri Avinash S. Deshmukh, learned counsel for the applicant and Shri MS Mahajan, learned Chief Presenting Officer for the respondent authorities.

2. Order dated 17.2.2023 is questioned in the present Original Application, whereby the applicant has been directed to be on compulsory leave. The impugned order is passed by the District Collector, Nanded. The order is challenged mainly on 2 grounds, first that in the Maharashtra Civil Services Rules there is no such provision which authorizes or empowers the authority to pass such order directing any Government servant to be on compulsory leave and second that the District Collector does not possess any right or authority to pass such an order. There appears prima-facie substance in both the aforesaid grounds. In fact, in this matter if the instructions are obtained by the learned CPO and if the affidavit in reply is filed within one week by the respondents the present matter can be disposed of finally.

3. In the circumstances, instead of granting any interim relief, I deem it appropriate to keep the matter for hearing on 13.3.2023.

4. Issue notice to respondents, returnable on 13.3.2023.

5. Tribunal may take the case for final disposal at once and separate notice for final disposal shall not be issued.

ORIGINAL APPLICATION NO. 24/2022
(Shri Jayant Raju Ambhore Vs. State of Maharashtra & Ors.)

CORAM : Hon'ble Shri Justice P.R. Bora,
Vice Chairman

DATE : 28.2.2023

ORAL ORDER :

Heard Shri K.A. Ingale, learned counsel for the applicant and Smt. MS Patni, learned Presenting Officer for the respondent authorities. None appears for respondent no. 3.

2. The applicant has filed the present Original Application seeking directions against the respondents to consider his candidature for giving him appointment on compassionate ground in place of his deceased father, who died on 14.8.2007 while in service. It is the case of the applicant that he was minor at the time when his father died. He became major in the year 2014 and immediately thereafter i.e. on 1.8.2014 he filed application seeking appointment on compassionate ground. As is revealing from the contents of the application, the mother of the present applicant was the first wife of the deceased Government servant and after her death the Government servant performed second marriage. The second wife has also preferred an application in the year 2007 itself and the same is pending. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that entire pension is being received by the second wife of the deceased Government servant. In the circumstances, according to the learned counsel, the present applicant, who is son from first wife of the deceased Government servant, is entitled for appointment on compassionate ground. The learned counsel, however, has failed in bringing to my notice any provision showing that when one application seeking appointment on compassionate ground presented by one legal heir of the deceased is pending for consideration, any other legal heir of the deceased can also file the application and that it can be considered by the Government.

3. In the circumstances, it is difficult to accept the request made by the applicant in the present application. It is not in dispute that one legal heir has filed application praying for compassionate appointment and same is under consideration. In the circumstances, no second application is liable to be entertained by the Government. Hence, no direction also can be issued to the respondents to consider the representation of the present applicant.
