Following compromise is arrived at by and between the parties:-

3. Applicant has filed this O.A. contending that she has been regularized as per G.R. dated 11-01-2019 but she was working as Medical Officer Group-B since last more than 10 years but her earlier services before her regularization are not regularized.

4. Applicant has pointed out G.R. dated 08-11-2023. It is applicable to Medical Officer Group-A. Learned counsel for applicant pointed out judgment of Maharashtra Administrative Tribunal Mumbai Bench at Nagpur in O.A.No.542/2021 decided on 12-07-2024. Similarly situated Medical Officers were granted relief by directing Health Department to regularize their earlier services from the date of their initial appointment as ad-hoc Medical Officer.

5. It is agreed by the parties that decision whether to regularize the services of the applicant Medical Officer from her initial appointment as an ad-hoc Medical Officer shall be taken by the Secretary, Health Department within a period of 3 months from today and whether her services shall be treated as a regular for the purpose of granting annual increments and earned leave by condoning the breaks. If decision favorable to applicant is not taken by the concerned Secretary, Health Department within 3 months then the applicants will be at liberty to file fresh O.A. Hence, compromise is arrived at in the above terms. Copy of this settlement shall be sent immediately to the Secretary, Health Department for further action.

ORIGINAL APPLICATION NO. 592 of 2023
(Smt. Preeti Gokul Morellu & Another Vs. The State of Maharashtra & Ors.)

CORAM : A.N. Karmarkar, Member (J)[Panel Head],
A.P. Kurhekar, [Panel Member]
and
S.K. Kadam, Advocate [Panel Member]

DATE : 28.09.2024.

FINAL - ORDER

1. The applicant no. 01, Smt. Preeti Gokul Morellu, along with her learned counsel Shri K.B. Jadhav is present.
2. Applicant No. 02, Smt. Padmabai Gokul Morellu, (absent).
3. Smt. Vanita Choudhary, learned Presenting Officer for respondent authorities is present.
3. Shri Ashok W. Yerekar, Executive Engineer. P.W.D., Aurangabad (respondent No. 04) is present.
4. The matter pertains to appointment on compassionate ground in view of recommendations of Lad Page Committee. Applicant no. 01 is seeking employment in place of applicant No. 02 after retirement.
5. Learned P.O. submits that respondents are ready to give appointment to the applicant no. 01 on the post of Sweeper, if she furnish 'No Objection Certificate' of other family members and undertaking that she is ready to accept the post of Sweeper.
6. Applicant no. 01 has submitted that she has three sisters. She further states that her sisters are ready to give NOC for her appointment and she is also ready to accept the post of Sweeper.

7. Applicant no. 01 and respondents have accordingly settled the matter and have filed compromise pursis in which it is stated that the respondent no. 04 will issue appointment order to applicant no. 01 on furnishing of undertaking and NOC by applicant no. 01 from her other sisters, within 01 month from the date of receipt of aforesaid documents. The said compromise pursis is taken on record. Parties are agreed to it.

8. Thus, the grievance of applicants is settled since respondent no. 04, who is appointing authority, is ready to issue appointment order in favour of applicant no. 01 on necessary compliance as stated above.

9. Applicant no. 01 shall furnish aforesaid documents i.e. undertaking and NOC of her other sisters to respondent no. 04 and respondent no. 04 shall issue appointment order as agreed in the compromise pursis within 01 month from receipt of the aforesaid documents.

10. Thus we are satisfied that the applicants' claim is settled by legal compromise voluntarily.

11. In view of above, Original Application is settled and disposed of before Lok Adalat.

12. Court fees be refunded to the applicant as per rules.
