Bhandari, learned Special Counsel with Shri Mangesh Deshmukh, learned advocate for the Respondents 1 to 5 and Ms Archana B.K, learned P.O for the Respondents no 6 to 9. 2. Pursuant to order dated 22.1.2021, we have kept the matter today for the submissions by Mr. Pramod Kulkarni, learned advocate for Respondents no 5 to 10 Today when the matter was called out, Mr. Kulkarni is not present. No communication from his side is received by this Tribunal. However, now his Clerk, appeared and handed over Written notes of Arguments dated 29.1.2021 on behalf of Shri Pramod Kulkar, learned advocate Respondents no. 5 to 10 signed by him. 4. We read the Written note of Arguments of Mr Kulkarni and we found that he has mentioned that Respondents have filed the present Misc Application raising objection regarding maintainability of the O.A on the ground of locus standi as the applicants are seeking directions that they are to be considered on preferential basis for the appointment to the post of Reserve Sub Inspector. The order dated 24.3.2017 was passed by the Aurangabad bench of this Tribunal earlier in O.A 378/2016 and ors (Shivaji N. Wagh Vs. State of Maharashtra & Ors), who are applicants in the matter before Aurangabad Bench in respect of the same issue. It is contended that the said order is not challenged in this Original Application and the decision of the Aurangabad Bench is also not challenged by the Respondents or the present applicants and therefore it holds field. 5. Learned counsel Mr. Bhandari submitted that the present applicants were not party in the said Original Applications before the Aurangabad Bench and were not aware of the order dated 24.3.2017 till the filing of the present Original Application in August, 2019. Learned counsel further submitted that the applicants have also made written submission for formation of larger bench, as the Police Manual and the Rules there under is the basis of the present O.A and which were not considered by the M.A.T Aurangabad bench as they were never produced when O.A 378/2016 was heard and decided by Aurangabad bench of this Tribunal. Mr. Bandari submits that the request made by the Respondents for the formation of larger bench, we admit it also in the interest of the applicants.

6. In the Misc Application the issue of maintainability of the O.A is contended mainly on the ground of locus standi. However, the applicants, who also aspire for promotion to the post of Reserve Sub Inspector were not considered for promotion due to wrong interpretation of eligibility criterion. Thus the applicants have locus standi to come before the Tribunal and challenge their non consideration for the promotion.

9. In the Misc Application, in paragraph 2, the Respondents have given the details of the view taken by the D.B of the Tribunal, Aurangabad.

10. We are of the view that the applicants being aggrieved party have locus standi to come before the Tribunal. However, the similar dispute was raised before the Aurangabad bench of the Tribunal and was adjudicated by the Division Bench, in which the Respondents were the applicants; we are of the view that this matter to be placed before the Larger Bench consisting of the Chairperson, Member (A) and Member (J).

11. In view of the above, Misc Application stands rejected.

Bhosle, learned Advocate for the Applicant and Shri A.J. Chougule, learned Presenting Officer for the Respondents. 2. The applicant prays that the order dated 13.03.2014, 07.10.2016 and 08.10.2016 be quashed and set aside which declares her not competent to become a Technician on the basis of less experience. 3. The M.A.No.209/2020 is filed on 27.10.2020. In view of the judgment passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sue Motu Writ Petition (Civil) No.3 of 2020 wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court has directed that the period of limitation in such proceedings to be condoned due to COVID-19 Pandemic from 15.03.2020 till October 2020. 4. The applicant appeared for the examination in 2013 for the post of Technician. She was called to submit her documents for verification on 27.01.2014. However on 13.05.2014 her candidature was rejected for want of work experience of 2 years. She did not take any action after rejection on 13.05.2014. She moved a representation on 26.05.2016 which was rejected on 07.10.2016. 5. The learned Counsel for the applicant submits that the delay is to be computed from 07.10.2016 and the period hence the delay comes to 2 years and 11 months. He further submits that that applicant got

	married on 18.01.2015. However, she had troublesome period and ultimately her married life came to an end in 2018 with a decree of divorce. 6. The learned Counsel submits that it was not possible for the applicant to take legal action and pursue the matter in between because of her family problems. The learned Counsel submits that however she has a good case on merit hence the delay be condoned. 7. The learned P.O. opposes the application and submits that the delay has to be counted from 13.05.2014 when her candidature was rejected. He submits that it is more than 2 years and 11 months and the reason given is not a good ground to condone the delay. The learned P.O. submits that the period started running in years after the date of rejection of her candidature i.e from 13.05.2014. She did not take any step for one year and thereafter she moved the representation to the authority. The respondent by elaborate order has rejected her candidature on 07.10.2016. We give benefit of the concession given by the Hon'ble Supreme Court due to COVID-19 pandemic situation in filing the matter. In fact the delay goes nearly upto 5 years. However the applicant has undergone family problems for nearly 3 years. 8. Though we understand that the applicant has undergone family problems still it is difficult for us to condone the delay of 5 years for any substantive and justifiable good reason. Hence, M.A is dismissed. 9. In view of the dismissal of M.A., O.A. does not survive and hence dismissed.
