Heard Shri D.M. Kakani, Id. counsel for the applicant and Shri V.A. Kulkarni, Id. P.O. for the State.

2. My attention is invited to Annex- A-2 the order of promotion and posting. It seems that the applicant is Group-B Government servant. He is Gazetted Officer and as per this order the applicant was promoted as Deputy Superintendent of Land Record and posted at Amravati. In pursuance of this order the applicant joined his duty on 31/10/2017. On perusal of the impugned order dated 31/05/2019 it appears that the Additional Commissioner, Land Record transferred the applicant from Amravati to Warud on administrative grounds.

3. It appears that the applicant was not due for transfer. The transfer is mid-term and it is not in conformity with the procedure laid down in the Maharashtra Government Prevention of Delay in Servants Regulation of Transfers and Discharge of Official Duties Act, 2005. Secondly, it is a disputed issue whether Additional Commissioner was empowered to transfer the applicant. In this situation, as the applicant is not relieved till today, the impugned order is stayed till further orders.

4. In the meantime, issue notice to R-2 and 3, returnable after three weeks. Learned P.O. waives notice for R-1. Hamdast allowed.

5. Tribunal may take the case for final disposal at this stage and separate notice for final disposal shall not be issued.

Heard Shri D.M. Kakani, Id. counsel for the applicant and Shri V.A. Kulkarni, Id. P.O. for the respondents.

2. There is no apparent illegality in the transfer order. Only grievance of the applicant is that his minor son has heart problem and he was taking medical treatment at Khamgaon and this is the only ground for transfer. During course of submissions it is cleared that when options were called, only one option was given by the applicant, it was Khamgaon. As a matter of fact as per the G.R. on which reliance is placed at least 10 options should have been given by the applicant to post him considering the medical treatment of his son, but it was not done. The learned counsel for the applicant submitted that the applicant has made independent representations vide Annex-A-6&7 to accommodate him at suitable place.

3. In view of this, it is suitable to direct the respondents to consider the representation made by the applicant in view of his difficulty and to accommodate him at a station where suitable medical treatment is available. The respondents are directed to decide the said representation within three months. Till decision of the representation, the applicant shall obey the transfer order.

4. In view thereof, the O.A. stands disposed of. No order as to costs.

Heard Shri R.K. Joshi, Id. counsel for the applicant and Shri V.A. Kulkarni, Id. P.O. for the respondents.

2. I have perused the impugned order at Annex-A-4. As per this order the applicant was working in Dog Squad Unit, Gondia and she was posted at Police Head Quarter, Gondia. It is grievance of the applicant that before expiry of the minimum tenure, she was transferred.

3. It seems that initial appointment of the applicant was as Police Constable, today the applicant is Naik Police Constable, therefore it was choice of Superintendent of Police who was head of the District to direct the applicant to work in the Police Head Quarter for smooth running of his administration. As the applicant is not transferred out of Gondia, therefore, the action of the Superintendent of Police does not amount to transfer. Only the Superintendent of Police changed the nature of the duty of the applicant.

4. Under these circumstances, I do not see any merit in this application. Hence, it is dismissed. No order as to costs.

Dated : 07.06.2019

Heard Shri R.V. Shiralkar, Id. counsel for the applicant and Shri S.A. Sainis, Id. P.O. for the State.

2. It is submitted that vide order dated 26/06/2012 the applicant was transferred from Ashram School, Dewada to English Medium Ashram School, Pusad and he was relieved on 30/06/2012. Vide Annex-A-2 the applicant was transferred on deputation to Umarkhed to serve as Warden of the Hostel. The deputation was continued till 01/11/2017. It is submitted that the applicant never completed his normal tenure of three year at Pusad and therefore the transfer order is in violation of the Maharashtra Government Servants Regulation of Transfers and Prevention of Delay in Discharge of Official Duties Act, 2005.

3. The learned P.O. submitted that the time is required to seek instructions from the respondents. It seems from the facts that though the applicant was posted at Pusad, but he did not work there for a period of three years and for a period of more than 5 years the applicant was deputed at Umarkhed.

4. In view of this circumstances, as the applicant is not relived, therefore, this is a fit case for granting interim relief. The respondents are directed not to relive the applicant till further orders.

5. In the meantime, issue notice to R-2 and 3, returnable after three weeks. Learned P.O. waives notice for R-1. Hamdast allowed.

The applicant's grievance is that his request is not considered which was on the health ground and though the post was vacant at Amravati the applicant was not transferred, therefore, prejudice is caused. During course of arguments it is cleared that the applicant was not due for transfer perhaps this might be the reason for not placing his case before the Civil Services Board. In this situation, it is suitable to permit the applicant to make fresh representation mentioning therein all his grievances and difficulties and time can be granted to the respondents to decide the representation. Hence, the following order –

Thereafter the applicant raised dispute for his promotion in O.A. 586/2018 and in that matter direction was given to the respondents to consider the case of the applicant regarding his promotion within four weeks. It is submission of the applicant that instead of deciding his representation dated 29/04/2019 the respondents have transferred him to Government Medical College, Nagpur. It is submitted that due to this transfer of applicant to Government Medical College, Nagpur the applicant will permanently loose his right for the promotion, no one is posted in place of applicant at Yavatmal and there were other Senior Clerks who were due for transfer, but were not considered, therefore, interim relief be granted. It is submitted that the applicant is not yet relieved from Yavatmal. In view of these specific circumstances the respondents are directed not to relieve the applicant till further orders.
