(Ku. Suvarna S. There (Pimpalshende) Vs. State of Mah.)

Coram: Hon'ble Shri M.A.Lovekar, Member (J)

Dated : 04/07/2023.

Heard Shri P.V. Thakre, learned counsel for the applicant and Shri S.A. Deo, learned CPO for the respondents.

2. By the impugned order the applicant has been transferred from Chandrapur to Wardha. The impugned order is dated 30/06/2023 (Annex-A-3).
3. It is submitted by the learned counsel for applicant that the impugned order was served on the applicant on 1/7/2023, on 2/7/2023 there was holiday and on 3/7/2023 she filed instant O.A. without losing any time.
4. It is the contention of applicant that the impugned order is malafide. To support this submission, reliance is placed on request applications dated 13/01/2023 and 10/02/2023 (Annex-A-1 and A-2, respectively).
5. It is conceded by the applicant that she has been working at Chandrapur since last seven years and therefore she was due for transfer.
6. Further contention of the applicant is that on 3/7/2023 she applied for leave, but her leave application was rejected arbitrarily and with malafide intention.
7. Submission of learned CPO is that the applicant was overdue for transfer, on 3/7/2023 she was relieved, thereafter she applied for leave and because she was already relieved there was no question of granting her leave application. It is further submitted that husband of the applicant is also serving at Chandrapur and last year extension was granted to the applicant in the light of G.R. dated 9/4/2018. It is also submitted that the post on which the applicant is transferred was required to be filled up at the earliest. On all these grounds prayer of the applicant to grant interim relief is resisted.

8. It is submitted on behalf of the applicant that she has made the representation (Annex-A-4) on 3/7/2023.
9. On considering rival submissions I have come to the conclusion that no case is made out to pass interim order staying effect and implementation of the impugned order. However, respondent no.3 can be directed to decide representation (Annex-A-4) within stipulated time. Respondent no.3 shall decide representation (Annex-A-4) within two weeks from today.
10. Issue notice to the respondent nos.2 to 4 returnable 20/07/2023. Learned C.P.O. waives notice for R-1. Hamdast allowed.
11. Tribunal may take the case for final disposal at this stage and separate notice for final disposal shall not be issued.
12. Applicant is authorized and directed to serve on Respondents intimation / notice of date of hearing duly authenticated by Registry, along with complete paper book of O.A. Respondent is put to notice that the case would be taken up for final disposal at the stage of admission hearing.
13. This intimation / notice is ordered under Rule 11 of the Maharashtra Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules,1988, and the questions such as limitation and alternate remedy are kept open.
14. The service may be done by Hand delivery, speed post, courier and acknowledgement be obtained and produced along with affidavit of compliance in the Registry within one week. Applicant is directed to file Affidavit of compliance and notice.
15. In case notice is not collected within three days and if service report on affidavit is not filed three days before returnable date. Original Application shall stand dismissed without reference to Tribunal and papers be consigned to record.
