Heard Mrs. Punam Mahajan, the learned Advocate for the Applicant and Ms. S. Suryawanshi, the learned CPO for the Respondents.

The learned PO is being assisted by Smt. Vidya Bhoite, Assistant, Home Department. The Affidavit-in-reply of 3rd Respondent is taken on record. Para 6 thereof needs to be reproduced.

"6. It is submitted that this office on 19.7.2016 has sent a proposal to the State Government for taking decision for grant of consequential benefits in the cadre of A.P.I. and on the post of P.I. Hereto annexed and marked as Exhibit R-1 is the copy of the proposal sent by this office to the State Government and orders on the same from the State Government are awaited. It is submitted as soon as the orders on the aforesaid proposal from the State Government will be received, this office would issue the orders."

In my opinion, therefore, by adopting the course of action of accepting the said statement as an undertaking and laying down the time limit of three months from today to comply, this OA can be disposed of.

The contents in Para 6 of the Affidavit-in-reply filed by Mr. Anil P. The OA is accordingly disposed of with no order as to costs.
