C.A. 216/2023 -

Heard the applicant in person, Shri S.A. Deo, Id. CPO for respondent nos.1 to 4 and Shri R. Deo, Id. counsel for respondent nos.7 to 9. None for other respondents.

2. The applicant insisted to grant interim relief directing the respondents to promote him in the DPC.

3. The learned CPO submits that he wanted to file detailed reply to this C.A. But the applicant in person strongly objected and submitted that the interim relief be granted to him. The learned CPO has pointed out the prayer in the main O.A. and submitted that the O.A. is different and the applicant sought relief against MPSC and not DPC. Now he is claiming promotion through DPC.

4. During the course of submission, the applicant has pointed out the page no.185 (Annex-A-8). As per his submission, 3 posts in MPSC quota and 4 posts in DPC quota are vacant. As per his submission, DPC quota is now likely to be filled and he will not be considered. Hence, he prayed for direction to the respondents to grant him promotion.

5. This O.A. was fixed for final hearing. During the pendency of the O.A., the applicant was permitted to appear before the MPSC in interview. The applicant could not fulfill the bench mark, therefore, he was not promoted. In respect of promotion in DPC, whether the applicant is entitled for promotion is to be seen from the side of respondents. At present, there is nothing is on record to show that the applicant is entitled for promotion. Hence, the present C.A. is devoid of merit and liable to be dismissed. If the applicant is entitled for promotion, then that can be considered at the time of final hearing.

6. In view of above, the C.A. is disposed off.

Dated : 02/05/2023.

Heard Ms. N. Pathan, Id. counsel for the applicant and Shri S.A. Deo, Id. CPO for the State.

2. The applicant applied for the post of Senior Psychiatrist. The qualification for the post of Senior Psychiatrist is having the degree of M.D. As per the advertisement, the candidate should have experience of five years from the Government Hospital. The applicant applied for the said post. In the form, he has mentioned that he is having qualification of M.D. In the experience column, he has given the experience of private colleges. His form was scrutinized by two members committee. In the verification, it was found that the applicant has wrongly filled the form stating that he is having qualification of M.D. In fact, the applicant is having qualification of D.N.B. The applicant is also not having five years experience. He is having total experience of 2 years, 8 months and 8 days.

4. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that the qualification of DNB is equivalent to qualification of M.D. As per the provisions in the Teachers Eligibility Qualifications in Medical Institutions Regulations, 2022 (Annex-A-1).
5. Now the question is as to whether the qualification of DNB is equivalent to qualification of M.D. is not a question. Now question is whether the applicant has given the right information to the MPSC. The applicant was well aware that he was not having qualification of M.D., even though he has mentioned in the form qualification as M.D. This is nothing, but cheating. Moreover, the applicant is not having required experience and therefore the respondent MPSC has rightly rejected his candidature. Hence, the applicant is not entitled for any interim relief. The Interim relief is rejected.
