JUDGMENT

- 1. Heard Shri K. R. Jagdale, learned Advocate for the Applicant and Shri A. J. Chougule, learned Presenting Officer for the Respondents.
- 2. In the present O.A., the challenge is to the suspension order dated 06.11.2018 whereby the Applicant was kept under suspension in view of the registration of crime u/s 7 of the Prevention of Corruption Act invoking the Rule 4(1) (c) and 4(2) (a) of the Maharashtra Civil Services (Discipline & Appeal) Rules, 1979. The Applicant was working on the post of Assistant Conservation of Forest at Manchar, Pune. After suspension, the Applicant had made representation on 02.03.2019 for revocation of suspension and reinstatement in service but it was not responded. The Applicant has, therefore, filed the present O.A. contending that prolong suspension beyond 90 days without taking any steps for review of suspension is illegal.

- 3. Shri K.R. Jagdale, learned Advocate for the Applicant submitted that till date the period of more than five months is over but the Disciplinary Authority or Competent Review Committee has not considered the issue of revocation of suspension in view of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in (2015) 7 SCC 291 (Ajay Kumar Choudhary V/s. Union of India & Anr.) and, therefore, the suspension beyond 90 days being impermissible, the Applicant is required to be reinstated in service. He placed reliance on the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in case of State of Tamil Nadu Rep. by Secretary Ta Gavt. V/s. Pramad Kumar IPS & Anr. Arising aut af S.L.P. (Civil) Na.12112-12113 af 2017 decided an 21.08.2018.
- Per contra, the learned Presenting Officer for the Respondents submitted that the review of suspension could be taken only in terms of G.R. dated 14.10.2011 which inter alia provides for review of suspension on completion of one year from the date of suspension. On this line of submission, he submitted that the matter will be placed before the Review Committee in due course of time.
- Disciplinary Authority for suspension of Government Servant normally cannot be interfered with the Tribunal in its limited jurisdiction. However, at this same time, the Government cannot be subjected to prolong or continuous suspension indefinitely. Indeed, in terms of various G.R.s issued by the Government instructions have been issued to complete the departmental enquiry within six months or latest within a year where the Government servant is kept under suspension. The object of keeping employee under suspension is to keep him away from regular service for fair trial or departmental proceeding.

- 6. In the present case, admittedly neither Criminal Case in instituted against the Applicant nor the Departmental proceeding have been initiated against him but the Applicant is continued under suspension for more than five months.
- 7. In so far as prolong suspension and obligation cast upon the Disciplinary Authority or Review Committee is concerned, it is no more res-integra in view of the decision of Ajay Kumar Choudhary's case wherein it is categorically directed that currency of suspension order should not be extended beyond three months if within this period memorandum of charges/charge-sheet is not served on the delinquent officer/employee; if the memorandum of charges/charge-sheet is served, a reasoned order must be passed for the extension of the suspension. In such situation, the Government is free to transfer the person concerned to other places.
- 8. At this juncture, It would be apposite to reproduce Para Nos.11, 12 and 21, which are as follows:
 - "11. Suspension, specially preceding the formulation of charges, is essentially transitory or temporary in nature, and must perforce be of shart duration. If it is for an indeterminate period ar if its renewal is not based on sound reasoning contemporaneously available on the record, this would render it punitive in nature. Departmental/disciplinary proceedings invariably commence with delay, are plagued with procrastination prior and post the drawing up of the memorandum of charges, and eventually culminate after even longer delay.
 - 12. Protracted period of suspension, repeated renewal thereof, have regrettably become the norm and nat the exception that they aught to be. The suspended person suffering the ignominy of insinuations, the scarn of society and the derisian of his department, has to endure this excruciation even befare he is formally charged with some misdemeanor, indiscretion or offence. His torment is his knowledge that if and when charged, it will inexorably take an inordinate time far the inquisition or inquiry to come ta its culmination, that is, to determine his innocence or iniquity. Much too often this has become an accompaniment to retirement. Indubitably, the sophist will nimbly counter that our Constitution does not explicitly guarantee either the right to a speedy trial even to the incarcerated, or assume the presumption of innocence to the accused. But we must remember that both these factors are legal ground norms, are inextricable tenets of Common Law Jurisprudence, antedating even the Magna Carta of 1215, which assures that — "We will sell to no man, we will not deny or defer to any man either justice or right." In similar vein the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America guarantees that in all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial.

- We, therefore, direct that the currency of a suspension order should not 21. extend beyond three months if within this period the memorandum of charges/charge-sheet is not served on the delinquent officer/employee; if the memorandum of charges/charge-sheet is served, a reasoned order must be passed for the extension of the suspension. As in the case in hand, the Government is free to transfer the person concerned to any department in any of its offices within or outside the State so as to sever any local or personal contact that he may have and which he may misuse for obstructing the investigation against him. The Government may also prohibit him from contacting any person, or handling records and documents till the stage of his having to prepared his defence. We think this will adequately safeguard the universally recognized principle of human dignity and the right to a speedy trial and shall also preserve the interest of the Government in the prosecution. We recognize that the previous Constitution Benches have been reluctant to quash proceedings on the graunds of delay, and to set time-limits to their duration. imposition of a limit on the period of suspension has not been discussed in prior case law, and would not be contrary to the interests of justice. Furthermore, the direction of the Central Vigilance Commission that pending a criminal investigation, departmental proceedings are to be held in abeyance stands superseded in view of the stand adopted by us."
- 9. The Judgment in Ajay Kumar Choudhary's case was also followed by Hon'ble Supreme Court in State of Tamil Nadu Vs. Pramod Kumar and another (Civil Appeal No.2427-2428 of 2018) dated 21st August, 2018 wherein it has been held that, suspension must be necessarily for a short duration and if no useful purpose could be served by continuing the employee for a longer period and reinstatement could not be threat for fair trial or departmental enquiry, the suspension should not continue further.
- 10. As such, in view of law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court, the suspension should not exceed 90 days and where charge-sheet in criminal case or in D.E. has been initiated within 90 days, then the concerned authority is required to take decision about extension or revocation of suspension. The concerned authority needs to take objective decision as to whether the continuation of suspension is warranted in the facts of the case. However, in the present case, admittedly, no such exercise has been undertaken by the disciplinary authority or Review Committee.

- 11. True, as per G.R. dated 14.10.2011, where the Government servant is kept under suspension in view of registration of crime under Prevention of Corruption Act, I.P.C, etc., the Review Committee needs to take decision about the continuation or revocation of suspension after one year from the date of suspension. However, in view of law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court, the review needs to be taken after filing of charge-sheet either in criminal case or in D.E. and in no case, the suspension should go beyond 90 days. Therefore, the stand taken by the Government that the review can be taken only after one year from suspension is indeed in contravention of the Judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court. Suffice to say, the stand taken by the Respondent in this behalf cannot be accepted and Review Committee is obliged to take review in view of filing of charge-sheet in criminal case as well as in D.E.
- 12. In view of above, the present Original Application can be disposed of with suitable directions. Hence, the following order.

ORDER

- (A) The Original Application is allowed partly.
- (B) The Respondent is directed to place the matter before the Review Committee and Review Committee shall take appropriate decision about extension or revocation of suspension in view of Judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Ajay Kumar Choudhary's case within two months from today.

- (C) The decision, as the case may be, shall be communicated to the Applicant within two weeks thereafter.
- The Subsistence Allowance, if not paid, be paid regularly. (D)
- (E) No order as to costs.
